PHILADELPHIA, August 2 1862.

Messrs. Jones & Evans.—Well gentlemen, your Hoofland's German Bitters has saved my life. There is no mistake in this. It is vouched for by numbers of my comrades, some of whose names are appended and who are fully cognizant of all the circumstances of my case. I am and have been for the last four years a member of Sherman's celebrated battery and under the immediate command of Captain R. B. Ayres. Through the exposure attendant upon my arduous duties I was attacked in November last with inflammation of the lungs [illegible] days in the hospital. This was [illegible] heightened by an attack of dysentery [illegible] removed from the White House [illegible] the steamer State of Maine from [illegible] 28th of June. Since that time I have [illegible] no one could hardly still retain a spark [illegible] week or more I was scarcely able to swallow [illegible] and if I did force a morsel down it was [illegible] up again. [illegible] even keep a glass of water on my stomach [illegible] [illegible] frankly told [illegible] [illegible] my limited funds [illegible] who visits the hospital [illegible] [illegible] below Arch Street [illegible] to try your Bitters [illegible] [illegible] the time I commenced [illegible] of death receded and I am [illegible] getting better. Though I have taken [illegible] gained ten pounds and I feel [illegible] to rejoin my wife [illegible] heard nothing for eighteen months [illegible] am a loyal Virginian from the vicinity [illegible] To your invaluable Bitters I owe the certainty [illegible] which has taken the place of vague fears [illegible] will I owe the glorious privilege of again [illegible] bosom those who are dearest to me in life.

Very truly yours,
ISAAC MALONE

We fully concur in the truth of the above statement as we had despaired of seeing our comrade Mr. Malone restored.

FRIDAY MORNING, DEC 4, 1863

The California and Oregon Railroad

We take the following article from the San Francisco Alta California, as it concisely presents some of the reasons for the construction of the proposed land communication by steam The writer is, however, greatly mistaken as to the population of Oregon, which now according to the best estimates cannot be less than 100 000 He also greatly underrates the population of Washington Territory, British Columbia and Vancouver Island We commend his suggestions to the consideration of our readers—especially of those who have imagined that a railroad would have no business on this route

A project has been formed for the construction of a Railroad from Marysville to Portland Two companies have been formed—one in this State and one in Oregon—to construct the road Congress will soon be solicited to aid the construction by a grant of land and a loan of bonds and the public of this coast will be solicited to take stock The project therefore, presents itself to us as a practical question to be considered and decided on the basis of mutual interests and topographical and financial possibilities When we take a general survey of this coast between 34° and 49°, we perceive a low range of mountains near the ocean—called the coast range—and separated from it by a valley about thirty miles wide is a second range parallel with the first but much higher rising to an average height of 8 000 feet. This latter range is called the Sierra Nevada in California, and the Cascades in Oregon This range is rugged and steep, and throughout its length in the American territory it serves as a boundary between a fertile soil and an abundant vegetation on the west and a bare desert on the east It determines the location of population on this side of the continent and the course of the principal lines of land communication

Let us look now at the coast in regard to its present and future population We perceive a population of half a million now in California, west of the Sierra Nevada These inhabitants have all immigrated to the State within fifteen years There is room for ten millions, and the tide continues to pour in There is a soil of extraordinary fertility, a climate of unsurpassed equability, an industrious population, skilled in all the arts and a mineral wealth that seeks in vain for its like In Oregon we find a population of 45 000 The Willamette valley corresponds in geographical position in that State to the San Joaquin valley in this but it differs in having a moist climate a rich, loamy soil, and a growth of timber sufficient for all the wants of the farmer It contains the largest compact body of land now under cultivation west of the Rocky mountains Portland at the mouth of the valley, is the chief port of the Columbia river and valley, and bears the same relation to Oregon and Idaho, that San Francisco does to California and Washoe Some attempts have been made to build up rival cities nearer the ocean, but all have failed, and probably all such attempts in the future will fail

Beyond Oregon is Washington, which has the finest inland navigable waters and the most valuable forests in the world with a fertile soil and fisheries unsurpassed on the Pacific It has about 10,000 inhabitants This Territory is too remote to attract many settlers just now, especially as it has no mines on the western slope, but it is destined to become very populous and wealthy Vancouver Island and British Columbia, which may have 10,000 inhabitants, will also become populous

These, then, briefly stated, are some of the present and future resources of the road The coast is stormy, the navigation dangerous and transportation slow and expensive A railroad is a necessity and a certainty It is absurd to suppose that a large Anglo Saxon population would live long on this coast without railroad communication from the Bay of San Francisco to Puget Sound

Our industry and trade make it certain that we will have a road, and the geographical formation of this side of our continent has determined that there shall be only one road The ocean on one side and the Sierra Nevada on the other, have bounded the path that we must pursue A traveler going from St. Louis to New York can take his choice of a dozen routes which run more or less parallel with one another, and compete with one another for trade There are no snow clad mountains to bound the course, and limit the direction of engineering and speculation Here it is otherwise We expect to have a city at the outlet of the Sacramento basin equal to New York, and at Puget Sound there will be a city not inferior to St Louis These two places will be connected by one road, and the builders will know that they will be protected by the great ocean, and by mountains almost impassable, against competition

While it is certain that a road must be built, and also, that it will be profitable, there may be some question about the time when it would begin to pay To examine this point would require more space than we have to spare to day Besides, our knowledge of the mineral wealth of Idaho is limited, but the people there claim that it is equal to the riches of California If this should be true, or near the truth, the road should be built soon

The distance from Marysville to Portland, as surveyed by Mr S G Elliott, who is the principal advocate of the road, is 641 miles and the estimated cost is $30,000 000 or about $50,000 per mile The towns through which the line would run, starting from Marysville, are Oroville, Chico, Tehama, Red Bluff, Shasta and Yreka in California and Jacksonville, Canyonville, Roseburg, Winchester, Eugene City, Corvallis Albany, Salem, Oregon City and Portland, in Oregon

SHODDY AND PAPER —We have recently heard, greatly to our sorrow, that paper has again advanced in price, and we are at a loss to understand the cause of this renewed assault upon the trifling profits of publishers, as well as upon the public, who at last have to bear the burdens of all speculation But the New York Herald explains the matter as follows

Simultaneously with the call for another levy of 300 000 men the paper manufacturers have raised the price of printing paper from about twelve cents per pound to about sixteen and seventeen cents per pound The connection between the two events may not strike the unthinking mind at first blush and yet the one is the immediate result of the other How? Nothing plainer The 300 000 new troops must have 300 000 full suits of uniform This necessitates an immense consumption of material and the material most in vogue with our army contractors is shoddy Shoddy is made of old rags, felted into the appearance of cloth and it is the demand thus created for old rags that sends up their price of paper The contractors have only to go to the banks, borrow money on the strength of their contracts and sweep in all the old rags into their shoddy manufactories The paper makers find great difficulty in procuring an adequate supply of rags and have to pay a largely enhanced price for them Hence the increased price of printing paper This demonstrates the close connection between the new levy of troops and the rise in the price of paper It is all shoddy

ELECTION OF OFFICERS —The new Board of Directors of the People's Transportation Co met last evening, and elected D McCully, President, J L Parrish, Vice President, and T McF Patton Secretary

The Pacific Railroad

Under the new impulse recently given to the great enterprise of uniting the railway systems of the Atlantic and Pacific States it is important to give currency to the ideas entertained on the subject by our eminent men To this end we give place to a letter from Edward Everett which presents the whole matter in a somewhat original light, and with an ability which can receive no emphasis from any praise which we can bestow

B[illegible]

SAMUEL HATFETT & C[illegible] [illegible] pleasure in complying with your [illegible] [illegible] Though [illegible] [illegible] the [illegible] [illegible] of the States than [illegible] than thirty five years ago [illegible] California was [illegible] member of Congress [illegible] settlements of the [illegible] California I gave such [illegible] the first company of [illegible] this quarter for the new [illegible] session I addressed the [illegible] gress in 1853 I urged the [illegible] Pacific Railway and at the next [illegible] ber of the Select Committee [illegible] [illegible] were [illegible] So manifest was the [illegible] the Pacific [illegible] sections of the Union [illegible] ility of the [illegible] of the interior [illegible] for tying California and Oregon [illegible] on the Pacific coast and protecting our Western border from hostile [illegible] one of the [illegible] of the State rights [illegible] and [illegible] a military necessity [illegible] It is true one of the [illegible] and our brethren of the Northern States [illegible] political sect[illegible] rity for any measure [illegible] they now [illegible] for the doctrine [illegible] and suicidal [illegible] of secession

Recent events not necessary to be dwelt upon have shown the great importance of a Pacific [illegible] in a military point of view. But for all the [illegible] objects of peace it is not less desirable The commercial [illegible] of the Atlantic States with California [illegible] already of vast magnitude and importance and those [illegible] and Washington are daily becoming more [illegible] now kept up mainly by the [illegible] voyage around Cape Horn—the longest and most uncomfortable voyage I believe ever made for commercial purposes—and by the way of Panama [illegible] shorter indeed but still requiring more than three weeks with an inconvenient change of vessels and the break and passage across foreign territory [illegible] most unhealthy tract of country [illegible] to speak of the risk at the present time [illegible] mistake not we shall shortly be made [illegible] the measure which our brethren in England [illegible] members of Parliament some of them in violation of their own municipal law, of the law of nations and of the principles of our modern civilization are daily fitting out to prey upon our commerce

It may give us a livelier conception of the importance of an artificial work like a railroad uniting the Pacific and the Atlantic States to reflect upon the value which we should place upon a natural communication between them Suppose the Missouri [illegible] southward and southeastward after it had reached say the mouth of the Platte river had by the configuration of the land been deflected at the right angle to the west, and had pursued a course westwardly to the Pacific Ocean We should then [illegible] of the Mississippi and of the Missouri with [illegible] course to the great ocean, have had a broad navigable stream capable of bearing the commerce of the world on its bosom, and forming the great channel of communication between Eastern Asia and Western Europe across the continent of North America No one can doubt that such a feature in our geography would have been of transcendent importance

It would have been to the growth and prosperity of the country in its relations between East and West what the course of the Mississippi is in the relations of the North and South As the course of the Mississippi north and south has created on either bank a line of States for two thousand miles from Lake [illegible] to the Gulf of Mexico so the Missouri deflected in a western course to the Pacific would from the date of the acquisition of Louisiana sixty years ago have begun to be lined with a double tier of States the two oceans would have been connected together by continuous settlements the filthy [illegible] of Mormonism which has already cost the United States an expensive war would have gained no admission into the hiding places of the interior and the great intermediate waters would have been rapidly filled by a Christian population

Now a railroad is for all the purposes a more effective and convenient medium of communication than a river For travel, for the conveyance of treasure, for the transportation of light and valuable merchandise and live stock and the transmission of the mail and the express the railroad has greatly the advantage It is equally available or nearly so, at all seasons of the year while the availability of the great rivers depends on a favorable stage of the waters above all the railroad is a work within the compass of human art and the resources of a prosperous State A few years ago the public mind recoiled from the cost of the enterprise The necessary outlay of a hundred or a hundred and fifty millions of dollars seemed too frightful to be thought of We have since learned that the cost of this magnificent work would not exceed two months expenditure of the war at the highest estimate of both I fear I may go further and say that there is every year of the war wasted and worse than wasted—that is unproductively and corruptly spent—a sum of money which would build the Pacific Railroad

Wishing you great success in your meritorious efforts to promote this all important enterprise I remain gentlemen very respectfully yours

EDWARD EVERETT

The Northern Peace Party.

We copy from the Augusta (Ga) Constitutionalist, the following speculations upon the actions of Northern Democrats, as they show what hopes were entertained by the rebels, based upon the expected co operation and support of sympathizers in the loyal States Read it, Democrats, and learn how your traitor friends regard you

Our people will recollect that two or three or more months ago we heard a great deal and that continually of the wonderful things the peace men of the North were going to do Many in our midst built strong hopes of peace on the action of the malcontents in [illegible] realm Many even were proposing terms of peace inviting the northwest to a free use of our Mississippi, and [illegible] going so far as to ask the Northwestern States to [illegible] New England and the Middle States, and come with us under our Pro-Slavery Constitution But since the 4th of July since the capitulation of Vicksburg and the retreat from Pennsylvania we have [illegible] a whisper of peace from beyond the Potomac The people of the United States have become elated at their successes and have gone crazy on the sensation of crushing the rebellion and subjugating the Insurgent States

We confess that we have built strong hopes on the division and dissatisfaction of the Northern people the gradual but sure growth of an outspoken peace party and the final break of the insurrectionary elements that exist among the enemy but which by no means or other has [illegible] been smothered or checked But we have always held that the only way to build up a peace party among the Yankees [illegible] to set at liberty the forces of opposition of the [illegible] blicans, was by a successful war in [illegible] the field We [illegible] great expectations [illegible] men of the North and the explosive wrath of the opposition masses, but we were never more fully convinced than now of the essential importance of the last and heavy blow from the Confederate armies [illegible] system and organization to the peace [illegible] the fierce impulses of the enthralled [illegible] people Mr Vallandigham himself [illegible] emphatically declared that the success of Southern arms alone could give strength and consistency to the peace movement, and we verily believe that if Vicksburg had been held and Lee had thoroughly defeated Meade [illegible] ground the Woods and Coxes and Vallandighams and their followers would have been ram[illegible] for peace and separation and that not a drafted man would have worn the United States uniform—[illegible] or degraded a [illegible]—in the city of New York But Vicksburg fell and Lee failed [illegible] the peace men are made as frightened [illegible] rowdies are forced easily into the ranks

This popular feeling must be checked and changed and there is no means of doing it but by a determined and successful conflict at one or more points The [illegible] holding out of Charleston helps us to some extent [illegible] more must be done The election [illegible] takes place early in November we believe and the Yankee Congress meets in December [illegible] affect the Ohio election and the organization [illegible] the new Congress a majority of which [illegible] publican party [illegible] It is to the last degree essential [illegible] one or more decisive battles [illegible] days If Johnston and Bragg could [illegible] Burnside [illegible] Charleston still [illegible] recruited army [illegible] new conscripts [illegible] resented then we may expect the [illegible] the Ohio election and [illegible] Congress But unless something of the kind is accomplished speedily, [illegible] well to peace party—Vallandigham will be [illegible] Wood and his party paralyzed or scrawed [illegible] and peace postponed indefinitely without foreign aid

A SOLDIER'S PLAN OF SETTLEMENT —The railroad from Murfreesboro to Nashville passes through what was once a fine farming land, now, however, fences are down and gone, houses burned and the whole country wears a desolate appearance Gliding along in the cars, one day, past many fields which were just becoming green with tender grass, the author heard one of a lively group of soldiers remark

I tell you, boys what should be done all [illegible] here Let Uncle Sam run his surveyors chains all over this then let every soldier pre empt his 160 acres, and it will be God's land again

From the Upper Country

Mr Neelman who arrived in Lewiston from Boise on the 24th November informs the Age that the Snake river diggings about which [illegible] a short time since, is about 70 miles from the Stinking water [illegible] and about 40 miles from Boise [illegible] He says that the diggings will pay about half an ounce per day [illegible] per ounce at the [illegible] All those who [illegible] at the time of the first excitement [illegible] returned [illegible] to find the right spot Mr N[illegible] between Lewiston and [illegible] with snow and says [illegible] snow to the depth of six inches in the [illegible] valley [illegible] up the [illegible] animals thus closing communication with Boise by that trail

It is evident that winter has set in in good earnest at and about Lewiston Reliable individuals [illegible] the oldest inhabitants, etc are predicting an unusually severe winter The [illegible] says The routes from here to Florence, Elk City, and Boise have been impassable for pack animals for some time As the time set for the election returns to be made from the eastern side of the Rocky mountains is near at hand [illegible] felt in the [illegible] expected [illegible] Parties from Beaver Head are unquestionably on the way doubtless they will [illegible] the Pend Oreille lakes [illegible] but the only one by which this place can be reached this winter from Beaver Head

We condense the following items from the Walla Walla Statesman of Nov 28th

The weather [illegible] unusually mild for [illegible] at this time [illegible] November [illegible]

Reports give glowing accounts of the great extent and richness of the newly discovered gold mines in the Kootenay country

Mr Woodward will put on a line express from here to Boise [illegible] with the express at the foot of the mountains

It is contemplated to put on a line of stages in the spring to run from this city direct to Boise

Miners just down from [illegible] that the weather was extremely cold [illegible] left Water in the ditches and on the claims was frozen [illegible]

Pack trains still continue to leave for Boise [illegible] will continue running to the mines [illegible]

The work on the [illegible] around Summit Hill on the mountain between here and Grand Ronde valley was completed this week Summit Hill has heretofore been the only objection raised against the new road

Walla Walla has steadily advanced in improvement number of inhabitants wealth and everything that goes to make up a thriving and prosperous town during the past year The same may be said of the valley

From the Mountaineer of the 3d inst, we make the following summary

The detention of the upper river steamer [illegible] was caused by an accident to the Nez Perce Chief which occurred on her upward trip while passing Squally Hook Her freight and passengers were transferred to the S[illegible] and the Chief returned with the up country passengers, reaching Celilo at 10 o'clock yesterday morning

Mr Wood, and the gang of men who have been employed on the Boise road have returned to the Dalles They report the road completed to Canyon City and in good order

Wells, Fargo & Co's messenger who came down yesterday informs us that the [illegible] murderers had left Walla Walla escorted by a detachment of cavalry They were to be taken as far as Touchet in a Government ambulance and from there the stages would take them through to Lewiston

The owners of teams on the Canyon City road are doing a thriving business Going up they have full freights at 16@18 cents per pound and coming in they are loaded down with passengers who pay round prices for the privilege of riding

The Dalles Journal of the same date says

Some of our staid and sober citizens, so far forgot themselves last night after hearing the good news that came both from above and below that they deliberately drank Union toasts until they became slightly inebriated

Mr Reed who accidentally shot himself, some days since, is rapidly recovering

IDAHO ELECTION RETURNS—UNION TICKET TRIUMPHANT —From the Golden Age Extra of November 29th we take following election returns from the precincts east of the Bitter Root mountains

Mr Payne, U S Marshal for this Territory, arrived to day from the Beaver Head country bringing the election returns from all the precincts east of the Rocky mountains except Fort Laramie, which will probably not be received in time to be counted Cannady's majority east of the Bitter Root mountains is 251 which reduces Wallace's majority to 3[illegible] as near as we can come at it until the returns are opened and counted The following persons are elected to the Legislature from the eastern portion of the Territory Last Bannock, W C Rheam, (Union) Councilman L C Miller (Union) Representative Bivan's Gulch, Mark Moore, (Copperhead), was elected Representative, but not being a resident of the Territory on the 3d of March, Dr I C Smith, his Union opponent will contest the seat Virginia City, A J Edwards (Copperhead) was supposed to be elected Councilman but the returns not all in Jas Tufts (Union) elected Representative Missoula county —— Powell (Copperhead) elected Representative, but will not attend

P S —Since the above was put in type a letter has been received by the express from Fort Laramie stating that Wallace's majority at that place is 174 swelling his majority throughout the Territory to 81[illegible] Bully for Laramie!

POLITICAL FAVORITISM —It is often charged that promotion in the army depends upon political friendship, and serious hostility to the administration has been aroused and magnified by its opponents on this account The following paragraph however from a recent speech of Senator Wilson, chairman of the Military Committee of the Senate ought to stop the circulation of such a false and ill natured accusation Messrs Nesmith and Latham were members of the Committee and the facts stated by Mr Wilson as to the action is not less honorable to them than to the majority for thus ignoring all party issues in the performance of high public duties Mr Wilson said

More than 200 officers have entered the service [illegible] Military Committee [illegible] Military Committee [illegible] [illegible] and [illegible] that Committee [illegible] political [illegible] vote [illegible] a single one of these nominations

GENEROSITY —In this cruel world an instance of pure unadulterated generosity is refreshing Mr Hiram Smith formerly [illegible] now of Portland Oregon has been [illegible] some weeks Yesterday he [illegible] the trustees of this township $1 000 to be distributed among the [illegible] [illegible] knew that [illegible] for the [illegible] proper [illegible] he will continue to [illegible] More than one [illegible] her [illegible] will thank [illegible] [illegible] to the Lord That [illegible] will be [illegible] Altogether [illegible] Ohio

THE UMATILLA RESERVATION —The people at Umatilla City and vicinity are agitating the question of purchasing the reservation from the Indians and opening that country to settlement by the whites The land comprising that reserve constitutes nearly all the good agricultural land in the county, and if purchased and opened to settlement will undoubtedly become a rich producing region —Walla Walla Statesman

THERE is no other way to cure diseases but by first purifying the whole system so as to create a healthy circulation.

The first medical men of the age agree with us that no disease of any extent can be cured without using such medicines as will act directly upon the blood Why many medical men have failed to cure chronic diseases is because the medicines used have not been such as will act beneficially on the blood

The many thousands of bottles which have been used by the public and the many gallons and barrels supplied to the physicians warrant us in saying that the last two years we have been more successful with our Scovill's Blood and Liver Syrup in curing hopeless cases of chronic diseases than have any other remedies in the hands of physicians, or before the public

It is now admitted that no combination known to the profession acts so promptly upon diseases as our SCOVILL'S BLOOD AND LIVER SYRUP

San Francisco Legal Tenders [illegible] 93

A PERMANENT IMPROVEMENT —We observe with much pleasure the deposit of cobble stones and gravel on Front street, opposite Carter's new brick block The mud may by spring ooze up through the interstices, but a second repetition at most will effectually keep it down This probably costs no more than planking, is permanent so far as it goes, and at the end of two years will have cost less, and need but slight if any repairs Our property holders generally may pay out large sums of money by driblets in patching up wooden thoroughfares until they awake out of their Rip Van Winkle snooze to a realizing sense of past folly, and find that to a decent pavement they must come at last"

HIGH PRICE OF CHICKENS — George Reed yesterday stole three chickens from George Harrold He was taken before Recorder McCoy, who in the absence of any mention of adolescent hens in the statute prices current, assessed them at thirty days each, and accordingly gave him an order to board at the county jail for three months

GOLD RECEIPTS —The receipts of gold per steamer Hunt last night were very considerable. There were about one hundred passengers, and many of them had large quantities of dust Two men had 150 pounds between them, and several others more than they could conveniently carry about their persons The receipts per Express were small

W T LEGISLATORS EN ROUTE FOR THEIR CAPITAL —A number of the members of the Washington Territory Legislature, to convene on Monday next, were in the city yesterday, and leave this morning on the boat for Monticello, whence they take horses for Olympia So far as we could learn, the Councilmen were Messrs Hiram Cochran and Daniel Stewart, Assemblymen, Messrs E W Perrin, J T Bowles, J Q Austin, Louis Lieser, and Dr John Toby.

NEW COWLITZ RIVER STEAMER —The new light draft steamer recently built at Monticello, and intended to ply on the Cowlitz river between Monticello and the head of steamboat navigation, has been towed up to this city, and may be seen at Vaughn's wharf, where she awaits her machinery, now being constructed at the Oregon Iron Works

"THE SERIOUS FAMILY."—This admirable and mirth provoking play, with Miss Fanny Morgan as the Widow Delmaine, to be followed by "The White Family," will be presented at the Willamette Theatre to night

PEOPLE'S TRANSPORTATION COMPANY ELECTION — The following gentlemen were last evening elected Directors of the "People's Transportation Company," for the ensuing year D McCully, J. L Parrish, J. D. Biles, A N Cooke, and S F Church.

SAILING OF THE OREGON —This steamship will leave for Victoria this evening. The steamer Julia will leave Couch's wharf at precisely two o'clock with her freight and passengers Richards & McCraken are the ship's agents.

NO MORE EXCHANGE OF PRISONERS —The War Department, with the approval of the President, has decided against any further exchange of prisoners Information has been obtained that our colored troops captured by the enemy have been either murdered or sold into slavery, and their white officers either hung or thrown into dungeons No measure of retaliation appears to have been adopted, but it is settled that so long as the rebels refuse to respect the laws of war in the treatment of any class of prisoners there shall be no exchange This will doubtless continue to be the policy of the Government during the remainder of the war If the recollection of the fact that thousands of our unfortunate troops are now suffering in rebel prisons will serve to stimulate our leaders to more vigorous efforts to break the military power of the rebellion, there will be no reason to regret this determination We now know that there is but one road to the liberation of the Union prisoners, and that lies over the broken fragments of rebel armies For the rebel leaders there is the pleasing prospect that, if captured, they will eventually test the strength of hemp —Sac Union

THE FENIAN BROTHERHOOD —A writer for one of the San Francisco papers writing from New York, devotes large space to accounts of the Fenian Brotherhood He seeks to convey the impression that the Irish of the United States are banded together in a brotherhood, organized to some extent, as soldiers, and are ready to strike for the deliverance of Ireland from English rule It is asserted that the object of the Irish entering into our armies was to obtain experience for the struggle for Irish independence Quite a story is spun by this correspondent, the pith of which is that Secretary Seward Bishop Hughes and other dignitaries are in the secret that Meagher is to be commander in chief and Corcoran is to have a command also that fleet steamers are to take the skeletons of armies to Ireland landing in three places, to incite the native to insurrection etc etc

A SUCCESSION OF TRIUMPHS —At each and every Fair held in 1860, GROVER & BAKER were awarded the highest premiums for their Sewing Machines and Machine work. In 1861 the same awards were made them, likewise in 1862, and thus far at every State and numerous District Fairs held in 1863, they have received the highest premium when exhibited in competition with other machines Among others, in 1863, we are apprised of First Premiums at the Oregon New York, Vermont Iowa, Kentucky and Michigan State Fairs Certainly no better evidence of the superior merits of the "GROVER & BAKER" need be adduced than the fact that their 'new style' noiseless machine has invariably taken the palm, and borne off the highest honors in every instance when exhibited since its introduction in 1860

The Bachelor and the Baby —"What shall I do?" and the old bachelor stamped about the sitting room in a perfect rage of doubt, looking first at the napping babe in the little willow cradle, and then at the busy French clock on the mantel shelf

"As sure as my name is Joseph Phelps, that little two fisted, large lunged nephew of mine is about waking, and it wants an hour of the time which his mother appointed for her return Whew? I actually sweat, thinking about it What can I do with it? How can I treat it to sugar what d' ye call ems or hold it, or trot it, or do anything with it?"

At this juncture a faint wail from the baby receptacle brought the bachelor to his taps With an energy and alacrity that would not illy become a husband and baby tender, he commenced rocking the cradle, sending the indignant baby into a perfect tremor of kicks and squalls Backwards and forwards from one side of the pillow to the other the round, red face rolled, the infant's fists were clenched with a force that purpled them, while from the white, plump throat came a cry that set the bachelor wild with fear.

Again Joe looked at the clock

"What in the deuce can I do?" he exclaimed, viewing wofully the little inflamed face before him.

He sat down on a big chair before the baby, spread a double cradle quilt over his knees, and with a look of terror upon his face proceeded to take the baby from its resting place He drew the young hopeful into his lap, just as a very neat old lady would pick up a pocket handkerchief, with his thumbs and fingers A fresh yell from the rosy mouth of the baby was the only expression of thanks he received as he commenced the never out of fashion baby trot.

"It must be that something is pricking him? Shoe, shoe," said Joe, commencing a search for the aggravating pin that was driving the baby into such a rage but no pin could be found, and he made an attempt to turn the baby over, but oh! the clumsiness of his fingers—the little coil like form fell out from his lap to the floor, sending forth a cry that was "louder, clearer, deadlier than before."

"Lord save me I've broke its neck!" was the exclamation as he picked the baby up, and in the agony of despair tried to quiet him. A thought struck Joe he saw a basque hanging against the wall in an adjoining bed room, and with a smile of delight upon his countenance, he went for it Sure enough, there it was, stuffing, bodice and all—a real monument of feminine ingenuity He was wild with joy He pinned it over his coat and fastened the sleeves behind him He took the baby and laid its head against the false breastwork

"Shades of Southern plantations and cotton factories," exclaimed Joe, as the baby rooted its nose in about a mile, and cuddled for a snooze Then the bachelor commenced singing—

"Women are all a fleeting show
For man's illusion given"

A tap upon the door stopped Joe in the midst of his suggestive song, and before he had time to disarray himself, the door was opened, and a roguish, laughing pair of eyes peered in upon him.

"Your sister is not at home, is she?" chirruped the visitor

"No, ma'am," stammered Joe, growing very red in the face, "and I have turned nurse."

Miss Hays laughed, offered to relieve him of his charge, which he willingly consented to, sitting near by the while, intently watching her She managed the baby to a charm, without the basque, and Joe was captivated.

Joseph Phelps married Fanny Hays.

New Style of Bedding —The Boston Post is responsible for the following

In Artemus Ward's inimitable lecture on Ghosts, which, by the way, was a ghost of a lecture, so far as ghosts were concerned, he tells of an absurd man who wouldn't have any glass in the windows—he thought the sash would be enough, as it would keep out the coarsest of the cold This reminds a correspondent of the story that old Parson H, of P., used to tell of his experience of the cold on the night of his marriage They went on a "bridle tour" to his cousin's, down on the shore of Connecticut, and spent the night, and being put into a cold, spare room, they suffered severely After a while his wife asked him to see if he couldn't find something more to put upon the bed After diligent search he could find nothing but his and his wife's clothing, which he gathered up and packed upon the bed, and got in and tried it again, but still they "grew no warmer very fast," and his wife begged of him to get up and search about and see if anything more could be found, and suggested that there might possibly be something in the closet in one corner of the room, so he went and examined the closet and reported to his wife that an old fish-net was the only thing he could find "Well, my dear," said she, "put it on, that will tangle the cold a little"

Quite a Difference —"I did not know that that was the law" said Rufus Choate to an ignorant and overbearing Judge

"Well, yow know it now," returned the Court, superciliously

"I hear it now," was Choate's crucifying reply.

A pompous parish clergyman felt his dignity mightily offended by a chubby faced lad, who passed him without touching his hat

"Do you know who I am, that you pass me in that unmannerly way? You are better fed than taught I think"

"Why, may be it is so, measter, for you teaches me, but I feeds meself!"

Artemus Ward has been negotiating by telegraph with Manager Maguire of San Francisco for a professional tour through that State The last telegram was "What will you take for the first thirty nights?" To which Artemus replied, "Brandy and water"

"I wish I had your head," said a lady one day to a gentleman who solved for her a knotty point "And I wish I had your heart," was his reply "Well," said she, "since your head and my heart can agree, I don't see why they should not go into partnership"

In this envious and calumnious world, every great man walks with his head in a cloud of poisonous flies.

There is an Irishman employed as a sewer on the Great Eastern Railway who brags of having a watch that keeps correct time He was heard to remark, a few mornings since, upon pulling out his watch "If the sun ain't over that hill in a minute and a half he will be late"

Jones went to bed drunk and turned over lest his breath might betray him to his wife Mrs Jones is reported to have said, in the mildest manner in the world "You needn't turn over, Jones, for you are drunk clean through"

Only those who have thoughts like lightning deserve to have a voice like thunder to utter them

Hoofland's German Bitters!

Are not a new and untried article but have stood the test of fifteen years trial by the American public, and their reputation and sale are not rivalled by any similar preparation

The proprietors have thousands of letters from the most eminent

CLERGYMEN,
LAWYERS
PHYSICIANS
CITIZENS,

Testifying of their own personal knowledge, to the beneficial effects and medical virtues of these Bitters.

Do you want something to strengthen you?
Do you want a good appetite?
Do you want to build up your constitution?
Do you want to feel well?
Do you want to get rid of nervousness?
Do you want energy
Do you want to sleep well?
Do you want a brisk and vigorous feeling?

If so, use HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS.

From Rev. J. Newton Brown, D. D., Editor of the Encyclopedia of Religious Knowledge.

Although not disposed to favor or recommend Patent Medicines in general, through distrust of their ingredients and effects I yet know of no sufficient reasons why a man may not testify to the benefits he believes himself to have received from any simple preparation, in the hope that he may thus contribute to the benefit of others.

I do this the more readily in regard to Hoofland's German Bitters, prepared by Dr C M Jackson, of this city, because I was prejudiced against them for many years, under the impression that they were chiefly an alcoholic mixture I am indebted to my friend Robert Shoemaker, Esq, for the removal of this prejudice by proper tests, and for encouragement to try them when suffering from great and long continued debility The use of three bottles of these Bitters at the beginning of the present year, was followed by evident relief and restoration to a degree of bodily and mental vigor which I had not felt for six months before and had almost despaired of regaining, I, therefore thank God and my friend for directing me to the use of them

J NEWTON BROWN

PHILADELPHIA, June 23 1861

PARTICULAR NOTICE.

There are many preparations sold under the name of Bitters, put up in quart bottles, compounded of the cheapest whiskey or common rum costing from 20 to 40 cents per gallon, the taste disguised by Anise or Coriander Seed.

This class of Bitters has caused and will continue to cause as long as they can be sold, hundreds to die the death of the drunkard. By their use the system is kept continually under the influence of Alcoholic Stimulants of the worst kind, the desire for Liquor is created and kept up, and the result is all the horrors attendant upon a drunkard's life and death

For those who desire and will have a Liquor Bitters, we publish the following receipt Get One Bottle Hoofland's German Bitters and mix with Three Quarts of Good Brandy or Whiskey, and the result will be a preparation that will far excel in medicinal virtues and true excellence any of the numerous Liquor Bitters in the market, and will cost much less. You will have all the virtues of Hoofland's Bitters in connection with a good article of Liquor, at a much less price than these inferior preparations will cost you.

ATTENTION, SOLDIERS!

AND THE FRIENDS OF SOLDIERS.

We call the attention of all having relations or friends in the army to the fact that "HOOFLAND'S German Bitters" will cure nine tenths of the diseases induced by exposures and privations incident to camp life. In the lists, published almost daily in the newspapers, on the arrival of the sick, it will be noticed that a very large proportion are suffering from debility. Every case of that kind can be readily cured by Hoofland's German Bitters. Diseases resulting from disorders of the digestive organs are speedily removed. We have no hesitation in stating that, if these Bitters were freely used among our soldiers, hundreds of lives might be saved that otherwise will be lost

We call particular attention to the following remarkable and well authenticated cure of one of the nation's heroes, whose life, to use his own language, "has been saved by the Bitters"

PHILADELPHIA, August 23, 1862.

Messrs. Jones & Evans—Well, gentlemen, your Hoofland's German Bitters has saved my life. There is no mistake in this. It is vouched for by numbers of my comrades, some of whose names are appended, and who were fully cognizant of all the circumstances of my case. I am, and have been for the last four years, a member of Sherman's celebrated battery, and under the immediate command of Captain R B Ayres. Through the exposure attendant upon my arduous duties, I was attacked in November last with inflammation of the lungs, and was for seventy two days in the hospital. This was followed by great debility, heightened by an attack of dysentery. I was then removed from the White House, and sent to this city on board the steamer 'State of Maine,' from which I landed on the 28th of June. Since that time I have been about as low as any one could be and still retain a spark of vitality. For a week or more I was scarcely able to swallow anything, and if I did force a morsel down, it was immediately thrown up again.

I could not even keep a glass of water on my stomach. Life could not last under these circumstances; and, accordingly, the physicians who had been working faithfully, though unsuccessfully, to rescue me from the grasp of the dread Archer, frankly told me they could do no more for me, and advised me to see a clergyman, and to make such disposition of my limited funds as best suited me. An acquaintance who visited me at the hospital, Mr. Frederick Steinbron, of Sixth below Arch Street, advised me, as a forlorn hope, to try your Bitters, and kindly procured a bottle. From the time I commenced taking them the gloomy shadow of death receded, and I am now, thank God for it, getting better. Though I have taken but two bottles, I have gained ten pounds, and I feel sanguine of being permitted to rejoin my wife and daughter, from whom I have heard nothing for eighteen months; for, gentlemen, I am a loyal Virginian, from the vicinity of Front Royal. To your invaluable Bitters I owe the certainty of life which has taken the place of vague fears—to your Bitters will I owe the glorious privilege of again clasping to my bosom those who are dearest to me in life.

Very truly yours,
ISAAC MALONE.

We fully concur in the truth of the above statement, as we had despaired of seeing our comrade, Mr. Malone, restored to health.
